

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Snider-West.

The marriage of Coy H. Snider and Miss Dorothea Virginia West, both of this city, was solemnized this morning at Washington, D. C. Mr. Snider and Miss West left last night on No. 4 for Washington and upon their arrival there this morning the ceremony was performed. The marriage was kept a secret until the bride's mother having apprised of the fact that the marriage was to take place this morning. Following the ceremony, Mr. Snider and his bride went to Charlestown, W. Va., where they will be the guests for a few days of the latter's grandmother, Mrs. James Nelden, with whom she had made her home until the past few years. They will visit other points of interest in the East and will return here where they will reside.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a costume of dark blue canton crepe with which she wore a blue hat and blue dolman cape of velveteen. Her pumps were of black patent leather. She is a daughter of Mrs. Walker Griffith of Pennsylvania avenue and came to this city six years ago to attend the high school. She held a responsible position in the dress goods department of Hartley's department store.

Mr. Snider has been a resident of Fairmont for a number of years and is one of the leading architects of this state, having designed many of the largest buildings in the city and elsewhere. He maintains offices in the Professional Building.

Mr. Snider's parents reside at Parkersburg.

Gone East

Miss Jane Montgomery, head of the women's ready to wear department of Hartley's, left last night for New York, where she will spend a week buying summer ready to wear goods. She will visit all the eastern style markets. Miss Montgomery was accompanied to New York by Mrs. Harry J. Hartley, who will spend the week there.

Moving to Cleveland

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Walthall, of Louisville, Ky., are in the city, the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stevens at their home on Alexander place. Mrs. Walthall will spend several weeks here and Mr. Walthall will leave Wednesday for Pittsburgh and will go from there to Cleveland, Ohio, where they will locate.

Surprise Party

Little Miss Retha Shelton, who is just out of the Fairmont State Hospital where she had undergone treatment for an affliction which followed a siege with infantile paralysis and who was treated through funds donated by the Times Christmas Fund was given a delightful surprise party yesterday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shelton on the East Side. The affair was arranged by the Kawanukani-Hofonamu Campfire Circle of the Fairmont High School, of which Miss Jennie Harshbarger is the leader. The affair celebrated the ninth anniversary of the honor guest, and she was the recipient of a number of pretty gifts. Ice cream, cake, candy Easter bunnies and eggs were given the children.

To Meet

The Women's Auxiliary of Helmsman post of the American Legion will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 at headquarters in the Legion building on Cleveland avenue.

Attends Luncheon

Miss Irene Osborne of Fairmont attended the party Saturday evening given by Miss Eva Compton, at the Old Home Tea Room at Morgantown in honor of her sister, Miss Ada Compton. The invitations stated that the purpose of the party was to see for one of the brides-to-be, Miss Reta Rutledge, whose engagement was announced recently.

Upon the arrival of the guests, each was given material to make flowers which when finished were presented to Miss Rutledge.

A delicious dessert course was served, the favors consisting of Easter eggs, daintily colored, were given to the guests, which, when opened were found to contain the following announcement: "Miss Ada B. Compton and Mr. C. R. Reynolds." The egg presented to Miss Compton contained her engagement ring.

Miss Compton is a very popular young lady, having been county home demonstration agent for some time in Monongalia County. She is a graduate of the University college of agriculture.

Hartley's Annual Springtime Sale of NEPONSET BEGINS TOMORROW

"Off with the Old and On with the New"—Particularly in the matter of Floorcoverings at the time-hallowed house cleaning season.

"Brighten Up" the floors especially—is the order of the hour in Springtime. No need to put up for another single day with a dingy, unattractive, worn old floorcovering. Because.

During This Sale The Price Of NEPONSET
WILL BE ONLY

65¢

A Square
Yard

The most inexpensive good floorcovering you can buy. It tones up the room, it radiates cleanliness and good cheer. And it wears—longer than any floorcovering within its price range.

Thoroughly waterproofed both sides and all through—which means it cannot rot—stain-proof, germproof. Easy to clean and keep clean—once over with a damp mop and your cleaning is done.

A practical floorcovering—never turns up at the corners. It doesn't wrinkle. It lies perfectly flat and smooth. You'll find NEPONSET on the floors in hundreds of good homes. It is appropriate for any room, but especially practical for kitchens, bathrooms, bedrooms, halls, and offices—anywhere where a wool floorcovering is not used.

See the Famous NEPONSET Sidewalk Test

Hartley's

When you come down town look for the pieces of NEPONSET we have placed on the sidewalk where it will get the most severe test—where the most people walk. Consider how many people will walk on any one of these strips of NEPONSET during a whole week. Watch it from day to day—note how little it shows the effects of the tramping and scuffling of thousands of feet.

Come in today, bring measurements of the rooms you wish to floor with NEPONSET. While we have a great variety of good patterns, some will go more quickly than others. By coming early you will be sure to find the pattern you like best.

Remember, Beginning Tomorrow the Price of NEPONSET Will Be Only 65c a Square Yard
